

Festival grounds Rules & Regulations
27th Pol'and'Rock Festival - 27.07-1.08.2021
Makowice-Płoty Airfield

General Provisions

1. 27th Pol'and'Rock Festival is a ticketed event, which takes place in a restricted area.
2. The Festival is organized by the Great Orchestra of Christmas Charity Foundation with its registered office in Warsaw, Dominikańska 19c (KRS 0000030897). Złoty Melon, which is a company owned by the Great Orchestra of Christmas Charity Foundation, with its registered office in Warsaw, Dominikańska 19c (KRS: 0000158131; NIP: 5213236491; registered in District Court of the capital city of Warsaw, with an initial capital of PLN 1.594.000) is executive producer of the Festival.
3. Mass gatherings and other events held during the Festival are regulated by a separate set of Rules and Regulations.
4. Participants can enter the Festival grounds from 11:00 on 27.07.2021 and leave the Festival grounds by noon on 1.08.2021.

Festival grounds entry

5. Upon entry to the Festival grounds, each participant must show a valid vaccination certificate (applies to people who received their vaccination according to the vaccination calendar).
6. Entry to the Festival grounds is only permitted with a valid, personal ticket. The ticket should be printed or presented in digital form. What is more, each festival-goer will receive a wristband, which confirms the negative result of the mandatory COVID-19 test. The wristband is to be worn at all times. Festival-goers should show valid photo ID to verify their identity (student's ID, driving license, ID card, passport).
7. An adult guardian or parent should accompany underage Festival participants. Both of them should have valid, personal tickets.
8. A Festival ticket is a one-off ticket. Once the Festival participant leaves the Festival grounds, their wristband is removed. Upon re-entry, another COVID-19 test will be performed. The cost of the test is PLN 49.
9. Festival staff can enter the Festival grounds based on a valid, personal photo ID badge.

Safety

10. Festival participants are obliged to follow instructions issued by the Festival Promoter and follow regulations related to the epidemiological situation in Poland and restrictions and safety protocols established by the Promoter.
11. According to the increased safety protocols, each Festival participant entering the Festival grounds will submit to security checks and health screening (COVID-19 test and health questionnaire).
12. Festival participants who fail to submit to security checks or health screenings or will have positive test results or whose health questionnaire will raise concerns will be barred from entering the Festival grounds.
13. COVID-19 tests, which consist of nose swabs, are carried out by the Promoter. The tests are performed by qualified medical personnel. The tests are voluntary; it applies to participants of all ages. It requires consent from the participant or their parent or legal guardian. The permission is obtained in the health questionnaire. The failure to submit to the test will result in being barred from entering the Festival grounds. Negative test results obtained from a different testing facility or vaccination certificate does not free the festival participant from the COVID-19 test on-site.
14. The Promoter has the right to remove from the Festival grounds any person under the influence of drugs or alcohol or exhibit antisocial or violent behaviour.

Conditions of applying at the Festival grounds

15. At the grounds of the Pol'and'Rock Festival 2021, it is strictly forbidden to:
- a) exhibit any violent or aggressive behaviour
 - b) possess, bring, sell alcohol, drugs, designer drugs, and other mind-altering substances
 - c) possess and bring weapons, glass containers and other items which might pose a danger to Festival participants
 - d) share, spread, manifest vulgar, offensive, obscene, racist content, messages and symbols. It is forbidden to share racist, xenophobic, political, religious propaganda
 - e) use open fire (campfires, gas cylinders)
 - f) possess and bring pyrotechnical materials, gas aerosol spray, flammable substances, fuel, and generators
 - g) smoke tobacco and e-cigarettes outside of designated areas
 - h) climb the stage and other elements of infrastructure
 - i) use and leave motorized vehicles outside of the designated areas (does not apply to the Promoter's representatives) - the failure to comply will result in the towing of the vehicle at the owner's expense
 - j) bring animals
 - k) use remote-controlled models and drones
16. The list presented above is not final. The Promoter can designate other instances of forbidden behaviour and prohibited items.
17. Alcohol consumption on the Festival grounds is limited to beer. The sale of beer and its consumption can take place in designated areas only.
18. It is forbidden to hold any other events, such as exhibitions, trade activities, without express written permission from the promoter of the Festival. It is not permitted to undertake any marketing, advertising, or publicity activities at the festival and camping grounds without the promoter's express written permission.
19. All Festival areas are marked. Festival-goers are forbidden from entering Festival production areas, such as stages and technical infrastructure.
20. Tents can be located only in the areas designated by the promoter of the Festival.
21. Parking is a restricted area. However, having parked the vehicle, Festival participants can remain there for the duration of unpacking or packing their belongings. It is forbidden to stay in the car (especially sleep in the parked cars).
22. It is forbidden to record (audio, video, audio-visual) and photograph (digital, analogue photography) concerts, meetings, theatre plays and other performances taking place during the mass events for public dissemination, using any technique or medium, including, but not limited to websites such as www.youtube.com; www.facebook.com; www.twitter.com and other websites and online applications without prior permission issued by the promoter of the Festival.
23. Please note: mass gatherings and events and the festival grounds will be recorded throughout various outlets of the promoter and promoter's partners. All audience members and persons present at the mass events and the Festival grounds agree to the possibility of appearing on the recordings and by attending the event grant permission for their image to be used, published and distributed (both commercially and non-commercially), free of charge and using all kinds of media (both physical and digital: including, but not limited to digital, optical, and data transmission). In addition, the recordings and photography might promote the promoter's, executive producer's and Festival partners activities.
24. To ensure the participants' safety, the Festival's promoter can introduce video surveillance, which will be in operation on the site of mass gatherings.

Final provisions

25. Anyone entering the festival grounds agrees to comply with these Rules and Regulations.

Violation of any provision listed in these Rules & Regulations will result in expulsion from the Festival grounds.

26. According to the Act from March 20th 2009 on the Safety of the Mass Gatherings

a) the promoter of the Festival has the right and obligation to expel any person who is displaying antisocial behaviour or violating these Rules and Regulations (article 22, paragraph 1, point 2 of the Act on the Safety of the Mass Gatherings).

b) a person who tries to force their way into the Festival grounds or refuses to leave the grounds at the express order of the Promoter's representatives is subject to a fine (article 60, paragraph 1a of the Act on the Safety of the Mass Gatherings).

c) forcing their way to the Festival grounds or refusing to leave the Festival grounds after the express request from the Promoter's representatives is subject to a fine (article 60, paragraph 1a of the Act on the Safety of the Mass Gatherings).

27. Destroying property located at the festival grounds shall be punished in keeping with generally applicable laws.

28. In case of issues not included in these Rules and Regulations, the decisions fall to the Festival Promoter.

29. The Promoter reserves the right to change these Rules and Regulations and is obliged to publish these changes immediately. The Rules and Regulations will be available online.

The promoter of the festival appeals to members of the audience to keep the area of the festival clean and tidy. Please dispose of all the rubbish after leaving your campsite!

These Rules and Regulations will be made public, published on information boards located on the festival site and in festival-related print publications. Rules and Regulations will be available online, published on the promoter's websites.

Anyone entering