

RULES AND REGULATIONS* OF MASS GATHERINGS ORGANIZED AT

POL'AND'ROCK FESTIVAL 2019:

31.07 – 4.08 2019, KOSTRZYN NAD ODRĄ, POLAND

1. Mass gathering events held during the 25th Pol'and'Rock Festival 2019 are free admission public events, held in an area open to the public. Mass gatherings are non-ticketed events.
 2. Due to increased security measures in force at the festival, each member of the audience must submit to a body search and/or luggage inspection.
 3. Persons who refuse to submit to a body search and/or luggage inspection will be refused entry into the mass gatherings.
 4. At mass gatherings, held at Pol'and'Rock Festival, it is strictly forbidden to:
 - a) bring alcohol, drugs, designer drugs, other psychoactive substances and drugs;
 - b) sell alcohol, drugs, designer drugs, other psychoactive substances and drugs;
 - c) display aggressive and/or violent behaviour;
 - d) bring any glass containers, items which might be hazardous to human health or otherwise, pose any danger to human life;
 - e) use open fire (such as campfires, gas cylinders);
 - f) bring and store any pyrotechnic devices and flammable substances;
 - g) smoke in the woodland surrounding the festival site;
 - h) climb onto the festival stages, festival infrastructure and constructions;
 - i) drive motor vehicles;
 - j) park any motor vehicles on evacuation and fire escape routes or any other traffic routes.Failure to comply will result in the vehicle being towed away;
 - k) operate remote-controlled unmanned aerial vehicles (drones)
5. It is forbidden to drink and/or serve and/or sell alcohol in the area designated as the mass gatherings area.
6. Sale and consumption of beer must be restricted to designated areas, located outside of the site of mass gatherings.
7. It is forbidden to hold any other events, such as exhibitions, trade activities at the mass gatherings site.

8. It is forbidden to undertake any marketing, advertising, or publicity activities at the mass gatherings site without the promoter's express written permission.

9. Please note: mass gatherings will be recorded throughout various outlets of the promoter and promoter's partners. All audience members and persons present at the mass gatherings agree to the possibility of appearing on the recordings and by virtue of attending the event grant permission for their image to be used, published and distributed (both commercially and non-commercially), free of charge and using all kinds of media (both physical and digital: including, but not limited to digital, optical, and data transmission).

10. It is forbidden to record (audio, video, audio-visual) and photograph (digital, analogue photography) concerts, meetings, theatre plays and other performances taking place during the mass gatherings for the purpose of public dissemination, using any technique or medium, including, but not limited to websites such as www.youtube.com; www.facebook.com; www.twitter.com and other websites and online applications without prior permission issued by the promoter of the festival.

11. In order to ensure the participants' safety, the promoter of the festival introduced video surveillance, which will be in operation on the site of mass events. Your data, obtained through the video surveillance system, will be controlled by the Great Orchestra of Christmas Charity Foundation (Dominikańska 19c, 02-738, Warsaw). More information about festival privacy policy is available online.

12. Destroying property located at the festival site shall be punished in keeping with generally applicable laws.

13. Violation of any provision listed in these Rules & Regulations will result in an order to leave the festival site immediately.

The promoter of the festival appeals to members of the audience to keep the area of the festival clean and tidy. Please dispose of all the rubbish after leaving your campsite!

* These Rules and Regulations will be made public, published on information boards located on the festival site and in festival-related print publications. Rules and Regulations will be available online, published on the promoter's websites.

Anyone entering the festival grounds agrees to comply with these Rules and Regulations.